

“DID YOU KNOW?” FACT SHEET

Ver. Mar. 17, 2012

1. Facebook risks losing a Leader v. Facebook federal patent infringement case.¹
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this in the S-1.
2. Facebook was found guilty of “literal infringement” of 11 of 11 Leader patent claims in federal court, which essentially means that the engine running Facebook is Leader’s invention?²
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this in the S-1.
3. At the time of the S-1, the Leader v. Facebook appeal at the US Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit was pending—the first ever federal appeal in Facebook’s history.³
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this in the S-1.
4. Facebook is required by law to disclose in an S-1 anything other than routine litigation.⁴
 - Apparently they believe that their first-ever hearing at the second highest court in the US (Federal Circuit) is “routine”... a routine of 1.

5. Facebook presented attorney-altered evidence (Interrogatory No. 9) in Leader v. Facebook.⁵
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this in the S-1.
6. Facebook is required by law to disclose in an S-1 any liability amounting to more than 10% of their assets. If Facebook loses Leader v. Facebook, they might have to pay damages ranging from 5-25% of their gross revenue from 2006 to 2021.⁶
 - 5-25% of Facebook's gross revenue is surely to be more. They didn't bother to disclose this risk in their S-1.
7. If Leader can prove willful infringement, Facebook might have to pay three times (3x) the damages.⁷
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this in their S-1.
8. Facebook might have to shut down if Leader wins its injunction.⁸
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this in their S-1.
9. Facebook's S-1 lawyer, Fenwick & West LLP, was Leader Technologies' corporate lawyer in 2002. 2002 was the critical timeframe that Facebook attacked in Leader v. Facebook.
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this conflict in the S-1.
 - Did Fenwick use its knowledge of Leader for Facebook's benefit? Of course they will say no.

⁷ Complaint 10. Leader Technologies, Inc. v. Facebook, Inc., 08-cv-862-JJF-LPS (D.Del. 2012).

- Fenwick failed to get a signed waiver from Leader before representing Facebook (pursuant to the California Rules of Professional Conduct); did not disclose this material omission.⁹
10. Fenwick & West LLP has filed almost 100 patents for Facebook since August 11, 2006 (U.S. Pat. No. 7,669,123 Zuckerberg et al) in the US and abroad.¹⁰
- Fenwick & West LLP failed to disclose (as an investor risk) in the S-1 that they did not identify Leader’s U.S. Pat. No. 7,139,761 McKibben et al as prior art in any of those filings.¹¹
 - “Inequitable conduct” means withholding of material information from the US Patent Office during the prosecution (filing for a patent) of a patent (that might invalidate one’s patent application).
 - Fenwick & West LLP had full knowledge of Leader’s patent because they did identify it as prior art in two patents they filed for Marc Andreessen (founder of Netscape), namely U.S. Pat. Nos. 7,603,352 (Filed Aug. 26, 2005)¹² and 7,756,945 (Filed Aug. 2, 2005).¹³ (“One source said TCV purchased some $200 million of the stock. And another source says Andreessen Horowitz purchased $80 million in Facebook stock out of their massive new fund.”)¹⁴

11. Facebook's S-1 claims over 700 patent properties, presumably including the 92 US and International applications filed for them by Fenwick & West LLP.¹⁵
 - What else are they not telling us in addition to not disclosing the Leader patent as prior art (which has the real potential to invalidate all of them)?
12. Whether or not Leader wins Leader v. Facebook, Fenwick's failure to disclose Leader's patent could invalidate many or most of Facebook's patents due to its "inequitable conduct" in not disclosure the Leader prior art.¹⁶
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this conflict in the S-1.
13. Facebook's first venture capitalist Accel Partners LLP (Facebook's first chairman James W. Breyer) received Leader's proprietary business plans on Oct. 12, 2005 (Jim Swartz, Ping Li, Richard Wolpert; documents that included no less than 264 notices of Leader's patents pending.¹⁷
 - Facebook did not bother to disclose this in their S-1
14. Facebook filed for an SEC exemption from the 500 shareholder rule, then used that exemption as an excuse to sell almost $1.5 billion led by Goldman Sachs... all without SEC oversight. This investment included $500M from DST-Moscow/Goldman Sachs.¹⁸

- Facebook did not bother to disclose in the S-1 whether or not it went over the 500 shareholder rule in the Goldman Sachs sale, nor did it disclosure the associated liability risks.

15. Facebook may have misled investors in the $1.5 billion financing, saying it planned to go over the 500 shareholder limit “sometime in 2011,” when in fact they told the SEC that they could go over 500 shareholders way back in 2008.¹⁹

- Facebook disclosed nothing in the S-1.

16. Facebook and Goldman Sachs shutout American investors from the $1.5 billion financing.²⁰

- This is the same Goldman Sachs that was BAILED OUT by the American taxpayer.²¹

17. Accel Partners' James W. Breyer (Facebook Chairman) received private tours of the Russian State Museum, the Hermitage in St. Petersburg hosted by Juri Milner.²²
18. Goldman Sachs was one of the first investors along with Russian oligarch Alisher Asmanov in Digital Sky Technologies (DST) of which Juri Milner is CEO. DST's Moscow and London employee base "reads like a Goldman Sachs alumni roster. Seventy percent of his staff came from the bank."²³
19. Accel Partners (in a private sale brokered by Goldman Sachs) sold a "significant chunk" of its Facebook stock, said to be about 20% of their 10% holding at a $35B valuation, sources believe at least $500M-$1B in cash.²⁴
20. Goldman Sachs is a major stockholder in DST-Moscow.²⁵
21. DST-Moscow's Juri Milner paid $100M to buy a house in Silicon Valley in July 2011. This was the highest price ever paid in the USA for a single-family home.²⁶
