DESCRIPTION:	Linkages discovered among numerous players in the growing Leader v. Facebook judicial ethics scandal contained in a briefing to Representative Jim Jordan (R-Urbana), Ohio 4 th District. The individuals and organizations include Federal Circuit, Judge Alan D. Lourie, Judge Kimberly A. Moore, Judge Randall R. Rader, Judge Evan J. Wallach, Clerk of Court Jan Horbaly, Lawrence Summers, USPTO Director David Kappos, US Patent Office, Examiner Deandra M. Hughes, Administrative Patent Judge, Allen R. MacDonald, Sheryl Sandberg, Yuri Milner, Alisher Asmanov, Mark Zuckerberg, Gordon Davidson, Marc Andreessen, US Patent No. 7,139,761, and Reexam 95/001261

The small inventor can only conclude that he is wasting his time in filing a patent if it can be endlessly reexamined by a Patent Office that is able to overrule the courts. If a patent that has been examined and affirmed offers no protection, then the inventor loses his motivation to invent. Why should he waste his labors on an invention that can be brazenly stolen with the connivance of the court system and the U.S. Patent Office?
