NSA BULK DATA SCHEME CONTROLLED BY AN IBM CARTEL

BEN FRANKLIN: TO SACRIFICE LIBERTY FOR TEMPORARY SAFETY IS TO DESERVE NEITHER

CONTRIBUTING WRITERS | OPINION | AMERICANS FOR INNOVATION | MAY 29, 2015, UPDATED JUN. 08 | PDF

UPDATE, JUN 08, 2015:

SOLICITING IDEAS ON LEGAL RATIONALE FOR "FRAUD ON THE PEOPLE" BY OBAMA, HARVARD LAW, HIS ATTORNEYS, LAW FIRMS, COLLUDING JUDGES & JUDICIAL EMPLOYEES

Representative Jason Chaffetz, Chairman, House Oversight Committee, just revealed on Jun. 2, 2015 that on Apr. 15, 2009, just two weeks after Eric H. Holder's, Jr.'s appointment as Attorney General (a Chandler protégé), the Obama (another Chandler protégé) White House sent a memo that directed all FOIA requests and Congressional inquiries and subpoenas to be reviewed first by White House counsel. White House counsel was controlled by two Facebook law firms then: (1) Donald K. Stern, Cooley Godward LLP (Leader v. Facebook), and (2) husband and wife Robert F. & Anita B. (Dunn) Bauer, Perkins Coie LLP, Obama's personal counsel. This memo signals clear intent by the White House to control a big hidden agenda. Such hidden agendas by public officials constitute fraud. They were clearly hiding their plans to "fundamentally transform" cyberspace through the IBM / Chandler / Eclipse Foundation / Facebook / NSA / Wall Street Cartel. Such fraud is "Fraud on The People." In law, fraud voids judgments and decisions. "Fraud on The People" may constitute the vehicle by which Congress can correct the damage done by the endemic corruption of the Obama Administration. We solicit your thoughts in the comments on legal precedent for a charge of "Fraud on The People."

LAWYERS & JUDGES CAN LIE, LEGALLY

No wonder Hillary lies about her email server and laughs. Government officials in lawsuits and tribunals are allowed to lie—even though their oaths of ethics say the opposite. Congress allowed across-the-board lying with revisions of 18 USC 1001(b) on Oct. 11, 1996—just weeks after Congress passed James P. Chandler's Economic Espionage Act of 1996. This is yet more kinky dink timing for the IBM / Chandler / Eclipse Foundation / NSA / Facebook cartel—a year after IBM's Eurotech Ltd/SpA embedded systems front company with Intel, Microsoft, Cisco and Wind River was formed—"The Internet of Things."

LEGAL ETHICS FARCE ON THE PEOPLE:

18 USC 1001(b) (revised Oct. 11, 1996)	Attorney Rules of Prof. Conduct 3.3 a(1)	Federal Rules of Evidence 410	Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges, Canon 3
Fraud laws do not apply to judicial proceedings	"A lawyer shall not knowingly . . . make a false statement of fact or law to a tribunal"	False statements under oath are inadmissible	A judge shall be fair and impartial

UPDATE, JUN. 05, 2015:

FISA COURT IS A CRONYISTIC FRAUD:

RESULT OF JUDGE "SELF-POLICING"

Former New York Superior Court Judge Andrew P. Napolitano just published an article in The Washington Times on May 27, 2015 in which he exposed the secret FISA Court as nothing but fraudulent spy state apologists. This site has helped expose the identities of the FISA court's task masters: Chandler, IBM, Eclipse Foundation, Holder, Kappos, JPMorgan, Breyer (Soros), Sandberg, Summers, Facebook, NSA. Napolitano stated: "In the

FISA COURT SCORE:

Police State: 34,000
Citizens: 12

14 years of all this spying, the NSA has made more than 34,000 requests of the FISA court; only 12 have been denied." This court was supposed to provide constitutional checks and balances against NSA abuses. However, it is merely a rubber stamp for a secretive group of bankers, lawyers and judges who mock the Constitution behind a national security smoke screen. Their vices are as old as Cain and Able: Money, greed and power.

What other profession is allowed to choose the foxes guarding the hen house? These are the people who pretend to be a noble group who live above the fray. The facts show they are lining their pockets at the citizen's expense; hence they become wealthy after becoming a judge. The judges have forgotten they work for The People . . . and The People are letting them get away with it.

JUDGE JOSE A. CABRANES is a FISA judge who makes his fortune on mutual fund insider dealings with spy-state apologists like IBM, Facebook & JPMorgan.

Magically, Cabranes also popped up in the 2nd Circuit panel that denied Paul Ceglia's appeal against Zuckerberg. Ceglia just filed another appeal proving judge Zuck-love. Just denied. More Zuck-love.

DISINFORMATION FROM SPY-STATE APOLOGISTS:

No.	Lie:	Truth:
A.	America is less safe after turning off NSA bulk metadata collection.	FBI says not a single terrorist was caught using NSA bulk metadata collected on American citizens under the Patriot Act, despite billions of dollars invested. Who benefited since the American public did not? Follow the purveyors radiating out from law emeritus Professor JAMES P. CHANDLER. He is a central figure as a primary security adviser to NSA / IBM / Eclipse Foundation / Holder and his Harvard Law/Stanford cronies. His, Holder's and IBM / David J. Kappos' historical relationships have been stripped from the research web, according to major university law library researchers. See also The Washington Post .
B.	FISA Court protects citizens from NSA abuse.	FISA Court approved all but 12 of NSA's 34,000 NSA request—that's the definition of a "rubber stamp" kangaroo court. Chandler is a long time adviser to FISA Court on economic espionage and trade secrets, having authored the Economic Espionage Act of 1996. NSA, IBM, FISA Court, trade secrets, economic espionage, patent theft, Kappos, Patent Office. See a pattern?
C.	NSA does not collect content.	To the spy-state cartel, relationship metadata is the content!
D.	Bulk metadata helps connect the terrorist dots.	See A.

Not effective. No oversight. Cost billions. So why are so many government officials frothing at the mouth over Senator Rand Paul's rightful protection of the Fourth Amendment? Could they be on the spy-state cartel's mutual fund gravy train? Where did that metadata content really go? We believe to the spy-state cartel led by IBM and The Eclipse Foundation with Facebook and the rest of the "social" world in tow as their dutiful data collection minions—Obama's mechanism for "fundamental transformation."

ORIGINAL POST

(MAY 29, 2015)—Americans have a Fourth Amendment right to privacy against illegal search and seizure by the government. Sadly, IBM has returned to the scene of its WWII crimes with Adolf Hitler by underpinning the NSA's bulk data collection scheme and feeding that data to its Silicon Valley "Big Data" cronies. See previous post.

Since the early 2000's, proponents of an electronic spy state have been at work. They discovered an invention that would give them what they wanted, if they could control its continued development and distribution. In the process, they would build in permanent backdoor keys for themselves. That innovation was Leader Technologies' social networking

UPDATE MAR. 25, 2014

FIVE CRITICAL AFI POSTS ON JUDICIAL COMPROMISE

Fully updated Mar. 25, 2014 in the wake of the Scribd censorship:

1. HOW PATENT JUDGES GROW RICH ON THE BACKS OF AMERICAN INVENTORS
Patent Office filings are shuffled out the USPTO backdoor to crony lawyers, banks and deep-pocket clients.
2. WAS CHIEF JUSTICE ROBERTS BLACKMAILED into supporting Obamacare by his ethical compromises in Leader v. Facebook?

invention.

OHIO INNOVATOR, LEADER TECHNOLOGIES, WALKED INTO A WASHINGTON, D.C. TRAP DISGUISED AS LEGAL ADVISE

In 2000, Leader was introduced to George Washington Law professor, James P. Chandler. Chandler was the NSA's chief intellectual property counsel. Chandler also advised IBM, Congress, the Federal Judiciary and the White House on information security. This introduction was dumb luck for Chandler, who was actively seeking a new Internet platform with IBM to achieve his vision of bulk surveillance. He fooled Leader into thinking they were in capable legal hands.

But capable of what? As it turns out, theft—the exact opposite of his "I'll protect your trade secrets" sign on the door.

TOTALITARIAN LIBERAL LOGIC

Chandler's totalitarian liberal logic was that Americans are not capable of securing themselves, so he and his friends will do it for us. And of course, it was only fair that they take good care of themselves. This is a quote from Chandler's Aug. 30, 2002 handwritten notes recently disclosed by a whistleblower (See Fig. 2):

"We do valuable work for our country and it is important for that to be understood and acknowledged."—James P. Chandler, III

He appears to have reasoned that taking care of himself and his friends along the way, well, that was only fair.

JPMORGAN-WALL STREET

One thing led to another. Chandler's federal judge friends complained about their pay and how unappreciated they were. So, with JPMorgan's help, Chandler and JPMorgan concocted a way to make judges wealthy through changes to mutual fund disclosures that Chandler used his Washington law influence to push through unsuspecting judicial conferences. Asking those judges to then rule his way on occasion, well, that was only a fair.

IBM

Chandler's client, IBM, was still licking its wounds at being eclipsed by Silicon Valley. So Chandler decided IBM would drive this bus and make Silicon Valley ride. Well, that was only fair.

PATENT OFFICE

Chandler's client, the Patent Office, would be instructed to cooperate, on occasion, whenever a pesky inventor

Benjamin Franklin (1759)

"Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety."

FIG.1—BENJAMIN FRANKLIN signed a solemn pledge two hundred and thirty six years ago. The final sentence of the Declaration of Independence is a promise among the Signers, to "mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our Sacred Honor." Many of the Signers and their fellow patriots did, in fact, sacrifice their lives and fortunes in service to our country.

Are the scoundrels who are attempting to hijack America by electronic stealth with their totalitarian liberal mentality worthy of the Signers? Is it moral to try and get away with a deception just because you can?

WILL HUMANKIND EVER LEARN? Facebook's Orwellian doublespeak about property and privacy (theft) merely repeats the eventual dehumanization of the individual under MAO's Red Star, Stalin's SOVIET Hammer & Cycle and Hitler's NAZI Swastika. Respect for the inalienable rights of each individual is a bedrock value of democracy. The members of the Facebook Cabal abuse this principle at every opportunity. They evidently believe that they deserve special privileges and are willing to lie, cheat and steal in order to treat themselves to these privileges.

Fig. 2—On Aug. 30, 20002, whistleblower information proved that James P. Chandler was colluding with IBM (David J. Kappos, chief intellectual property counsel) and the U.S. Patent Office were colluding in the formation of The Eclipse, Foundation. Doug Duncan was Montgomery County, Maryland executive (mayor). Kappos was appointed director of the Patent Office by President Obama in a rare recess appointment on Aug. 07, 2009. Soon after, Kappos converted all of his IBM stock to Vanguard stock. IBM's chief financial officer, Mark Loughridge, is now a director of Vanguard. Loughridge wrote the $40 million "donation" check at IBM to fund The Eclipse Foundation on Nov. 29, whose technology they would steal, made a claim against this hegemony. To insure this, Chandler arranged with his buddy Obama to have his buddy at IBM, David J. Kappos, appointed Patent Office director in a rare recess appointment. Kappos's cooperation in killing patents Eclipse and IBM wanted to steal, well, that was only fair.

SILICON VALLEY

Silicon Valley's top ~~thieves~~ venture capitalists played along with Wall Street to create a stream of IPO spin offs off of Leader Technologies' social networking invention. JPMorgan, Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, HSBC, and a slew of offshore money launderers constructed this Ponzi scheme on a heretofore unseen scale. The fact that all these conspirators pocketed fortunes themselves, well, that was only fair.

Mutual funds like Fidelity, Vanguard and T. Rowe Price were invited into the fold to create special mutual fund bribery vehicles to garner the dutiful cooperation of judges, bureaucrats and politicians. (Tip: "Invest in XYZ mutual fund and ask no questions." Wink. Wink. Don't worry, the "safe harbor concept" we slid through the Judicial Conference in 2001 will be your excuse if this scheme is exposed.)

NSA

Chandler's client, the NSA, wanted all the backdoor keys, which Chandler arranged with IBM's full support. After all, IBM had prior experience with Adolf Hitler and state surveillance. To reward the people and companies who helped the NSA achieve this goal, well, that was only fair.

(Well, aren't these people just a right fair bunch? Never mind they severely damaged propriety and the world economy in the process.)

IBM: Once a monopoly, always a monopoly. "Power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely." See previous post, IBM SOLD OUT AMERICA IN SALE OF PC GROUP TO CHINESE IN 2004.

How did Chandler unify all these disparate elements into a common cause?

U.S. CONSTITUTION ECLIPSED BY ECLIPSE

Voile! On Nov. 29, 2012, IBM / Kappos and Chandler formed a fake foundation named "The Eclipse Foundation." IBM "donated" a mere $40 million (Leader Technologies had already invested $10 million and 145,000 man-hours). The term "Eclipse" is Freudian, as in block the U.S. Constitution in the process of building this secret spy engine.

OBAMA: FUNDAMENTALLY TRANSFORMING AMERICA

Obama (and his cronies in banking, tech and the judiciary) would have had this Eclipse agenda in his head when he promised in 2008 to "fundamentally transform\(ing\) the United States of America."

With The Eclipse Foundation, these disparate players each received what they wanted. The NSA constructed backdoor keys; IBM drove global architecture; Silicon Valley cooked up IPOs with the help of a phalanx of crooked law firms; the Government gave "big data" metadata to feed crony Silicon Valley companies; Wall Street and mutual funds created "deal flow;" judges, bureaucrats and politicians grew rich by riding along and occasionally

LEADER TECHNOLOGIES Inventor Protection Act

(Proposed)

America needs to practice what it preaches.

We have no business lecturing the world about free enterprise and the rule of law, when we permit the investors in Ohio-based innovator Leader Technologies to go uncompensated for the risks they took to help invent social networking . . .

—a technology upon which the President and U.S. government now rely;

—a technology stolen by the "Facebook Cabal" who recruited the federal courts and Patent Office into their club of corruption.

Contact your representatives. Ask them to pass it.

Real American inventors need your support.

ASK YOUR SENATORS TO VOTE TO STOP NSA BULK DATA COLLECTION AND RELATED AUTHORIZATIONS

No one in their right mind is against Constitutional law enforcement practices. Equally, no freedom-loving American should tolerate unConstitutional practices where personal information is stored in bulk, without a warrant that is approved by an impartial judge who is not an insider in the cronyistic secret spy state FISA court.

Totalitarian regimes collect bulk data. The American Republic should not.

The U.S. Senate meets in a special Sunday session to vote on whether or not to extend The Patriot Act and its bulk data collection program

Please ask your Senators to vote to stop the un-American NSA bulk data collection program. The spy state apologists argue that no one can prove that the data has been abused. This is a self-serving argument since it is all secret. In any event, the very fact that it is being collected at all is an abuse of the U.S. Constitution. Senator Rand Paul rightly says: "We don't have to choose between fighting terrorism and obeying the Constitution."

ONLY POLICE STATES SPY INDISCRIMINATELY

Only police states spy indiscriminately on its citizens to gain advantage. The NSA's spy-state apologists in Silicon Valley and Wall Street are using this metadata to manipulate public opinion, pad their coffers and influence votes. Count on it. America is being fundamentally transformed . . . in secret.

firm with the reason why not a single Wall Street banker has gone to jail since 2008. Click here to read her article "Everybody hates whistleblowers." Examiner.com, Apr. 10, 2012. Here's an excerpt:

"Skillful manipulation of the firm's extensive media connections allows Gibson Dunn to promote their causes, while simultaneously smearing their opponents and silencing embarrassing news coverage."

This statement followed right after Davis cited Facebook's chief inside counsel in the Leader v. Facebook case, Theodore Ulliot, who appears to have helped lead the Leader v. Facebook judicial corruption. Interesting word choices associated with Gibson Dunn LLP: manipulation, smear. Attorneys swear a solemn oath to act morally, ethically, and in

FIG. 4—Do the IBM/Eclipse/NSA/Facebook Cartel and the Obama administration plan to seize control of the Internet before this administration leaves office? Seems they do. Blanket NSA metadata collection facilitates that goal since it allows IBM, Eclipse members, including Facebook, to know everyone’s connections and networks, intimately. Once they know your networks they can control you. The agenda here is utterly immoral, yet packaged in a floury national security or protect-our-kids rationale.

Tell your Senators to vote against NSA bulk data collection. (They vote in special session on Sunday, so do it today!) You can go to their contact page at:

<http://www.contactingthecongress.org/>

Here's what I wrote. FEEL FREE to use it!

Dear Senator NAME,

I agree with the principle that a warrant must have a real name. I am against, on constitutional principles, the idea of a blanket warrant given to a telecom company by a government agency that can make up its own rules as it goes in secret. This is the definition of totalitarianism. There must be public accountability. A secret FISA court is not public accountability, especially since these courts are stacked with like-minded cronies

Please vote against NSA bulk data collection.

Sincerely,

YOUR NAME

Several of us just watched a PBS Independent Lens documentary last night called "1971." It is well worth the time IMHO.

<http://video.pbs.org/video/2365459906/>

PBS TRAILER: "On March 8, 1971, a group of citizens broke into a small FBI office in Pennsylvania, took every file, and shared them with the public. Their actions exposed the FBI's illegal surveillance program of law-abiding Americans. Now, these previously anonymous Americans publicly share their story for the first time."

OUR COMMENTS: Every patriot of any political stripe should watch this. It chronicles activists protesting FBI J. Edgar Hoover's police state and the widespread violation of First Amendment rights in 1971. The FBI was conducting dragnet surveillance on anyone whose political activity Hoover considered anti-American--even mothers' support groups Hoover considered "Feminist Activists." The parallels to the NSA's bulk collection of our phone records is disturbing. (What else are they doing that we don't know about?.)

It appears that Barack Obama, Eric Holder, James Chandler, FISA Judge Reggie Walton (signed the opinion ceding dictatorial powers to Holder in 2008) and Loretta Lynch are our black J. Edgar Hoovers, on steroids. Payback's a bitch?

The Constitution and property rights are collateral damage, it would seem.

SYNOPSIS OF NSA SIMILARITIES : Chandler was legal counsel to Leader Technologies, yet gave away Leader's invention / Arunachalam's invention / Van der Meer's invention / Ceglia's contract rights / etc. via Chandler's clients, David J. Kappos (later Obama's Patent Office director, IBM and Fenwick & West (Accel Partners - Facebook's largest insider shareholder)). MEMO: Chandler decided these proprietary properties should be given to IBM as "Open Source." Why? Because His Beneficence thought they should, it created more legal fees from IBM, and it made him big man on campus... and oh by the way, it aided national security--Hoover's excuse to do it all in secret too.

Chandler then arranged for his other clients, Eric Holder / Loretta Lynch, to be granted almost dictatorial powers to seize data on Americans and store it in Facebook's databanks outside the United States, via an obscurely written "advisory opinion" that only this group would know how they intended to abuse it.

FACT: Senator Orin Hatch (R) Utah, currently fighting for extension of the Patriot Act, is also a Chandler client. There are probably lots of skeletons in these closets. Chandler is calling in markers, for sure. Disgraced Leader v. Facebook Federal Circuit Chief Judge, Randall Rader, worked for Hatch and with Chandler at the Senate.

So you see, this corruption is no respecter of party.

Repost of Arasmus comment from previous Post:

The American surveillance state apologists are in full spin mode after the FBI said they could not identify a single terrorist captured by the NSA bulk data collection program. They're also saying there is no proof hat the metadata has been abused.

The fact that it has been collected and kept secret without oversight is big evidence of abuse! Second, how would we ever know since they have operated in secret and without oversight?

Most telling are the $$$ billions of dollars put into a program for such allegedly meager returns. This spin is likely all misdirection.

We should be asking who has had access to this data all along. Taking bets its the same Obama Facebook Cartel that has been building backdoor data-sucking siphons into IRS-HealthCare.gov data with the help of Obama's chief hack, Todd Y. Park (athenahealth, Castlight Health, Obamacare architect, Data Palooza organizer).

Also taking bets that we'll find this NSA data not only in Utah, but in our "dark profiles" in Sweden, China, Brazil and other BRIC countries where the Accel Partners / IDG / Goldman Sachs / Morgan Stanley / JPMorgan are shifting all their assets.

OUR MISSION

American citizens must fight abuse of the constitutional right for authors and inventors to enjoy the fruits of their inventions, as a matter of matter of basic property rights and sound public policy. Otherwise, instead of innovation, creativity, genius, ideas, vision, courage, entrepreneurship, respect, property, rejuvenation, morals, ethics, values, renewal, truth, facts, rights, privacy, solutions and judicial faithfulness,

. . . our society and economy will be dragged down (and eventually destroyed) by copying, infringement, thievery, counterfeiting, hacking, greed, misinformation, exploitation, abuse, waste, disrespect, falsity, corruption, bribery, coercion, intimidation, doublespeak, misconduct, lies, deception, attorney "dark arts," destruction, confusion, dishonesty, judicial chicanery and lawlessness.

If we do not speak up, impeach derelict judges and imprison corrupt attorneys, we cannot possibly hope to start fixing the current ills in our society. Without justice and respect for private property, democracy has no sure foundation.

SENATOR RAND PAUL has it right, and he has b-i-partisan support. Here's his email today. A take away: "We don't have to choose between fighting terrorism and obeying the Constitution."

RAND PAUL'S May 30, 2015 EMAIL:

Tomorrow I will force the expiration of the NSA's illegal spying program.

I will not allow any bill extending illegal NSA spying to be rushed through ahead of the deadline.

My oath is to support and defend the Constitution and I won't back down.

The abuse of general warrants and the attack on the Bill of Rights must stop once-and-for-all.

We don't have to choose between fighting terrorism and obeying the Constitution.

That's why, two years ago, I sued the NSA.

It's why I proposed the Fourth Amendment Protection Act to force our government to abide by the Bill of Rights.

It's why I have fought for a full, open and honest debate on warrantless domestic spying - a debate that is always kicked down the road in the name of "security."

So last week, with the proponents of this illegal spying rushing toward a deadline to ram through renewing illegal spying, I took a stand.

I filibustered for over 10 hours to shine a light on the vast expansion of the spy state and the erosion of our liberties.

I stood on the Senate floor until the early hours of the morning and helped block any short-term extension of these powers.

Tomorrow, the Senate will come back from recess with just hours left before the NSA's illegal spying powers expire.

And I won't allow defenders of the spy state to legislate through a manufactured crisis by holding a deadline over the head of Congress.

Let me be clear: I believe the number one job of the federal government is national defense.

I believe we must fight terrorism and I believe we must stand strong against our enemies.

But we do not need to compromise the Constitution in the process.

In fact, we must not.

I am ready and willing to start the debate on how we fight terrorism without giving up our liberty.

This can't be delayed any longer.

I do not do this to obstruct.

I'm fighting for a strong national defense that upholds the Constitution and protects Americans from enemies who seek to do us harm.

strong intellectual property rights. We welcome commenters and contributors. The Leader v. Facebook patent infringement case first came to our attention after learning that the trial judge, Leonard P. Stark, U.S. District Court of Delaware, ignored his jury's admission that they had no evidence to support their on-sale bar verdict, but the judge supported it anyway.

The judicial misconduct has deteriorated from there, replete with two of the three judges on the Federal Circuit appeal panel, Judges Alan D. Lourie and Kimberly A. Moore, holding Facebook stock that they did not disclose to the litigants, and later tried to excuse through a quick motion slipped in at the last minute by the Clerk of Court, Jan Horbaly, and his close friends at The Federal Circuit Bar Association. (The DC Bar subsequently revealed that Mr. Horbaly is not licensed to practice law in Washington D.C.)

The judges ignored shocking new evidence that Mark Zuckerberg withheld 28 hard drives of 2003-2004 evidence from Leader Technologies that could prove actual theft (and therefore claims even more serious than infringement). In addition, Facebook's appeal attorney, Thomas G. Hungar of Gibson Dunn LLP, has close personal ties to just about every judicial player in this story. The misconduct appears to reach into the U.S. Patent Office through abuse of the reexamination process by Facebook. We will stay focused on Leader v. Facebook until justice is served, but we also welcome news and analysis of intellectual property abuse in other cases as well.

Email comment by TEX:

A few years ago, there was a movie made about a man named Bob Kearns. In a number of ways, the story of Mr Kearns parallels the Leader Vs Facebook story. Seems that Mr Kearns, an engineer by education, invented and patented the first intermittent windshield wipers. He took his new invention to Ford and Chrysler . Both auto makers rejected his idea. However, in a couple of years , both included these wipers with variable speeds on their new cars. Mr Kearns knew, with certainty , that his idea was stolen. He spent years pursuing an equitable remedy but the big money seemed to win at every turn. They tried to beat him down, discourage him, threaten him . Without question, they underestimated his toughness and resolve. He ultimately prevailed. The movie , Flash of Genius, was not a box office hit and the producers of the movie were castigated by industry peers for their efforts to tell a true story against industry giants. Nonetheless, the theft was exposed and he gained his justice.

Sound familiar? Apparently, auto makers wanted those wipers to be "open source". It was better to let everyone have it's application than to pay royalties to the inventor. After all, it was for the common good. In this movie, the names of Ford and Chrysler are interchangeable with Chandler, Facebook, IBM, et al. The name Kearns could be Leader Technologies. It appears that the inventors of the patents (Leader) used by Facebook and others , are just as tenacious. The difference , however, is that there appears to be a new layer of complicity in the Leader case.....the judges . This is a layer Kearns didn't have to overcome.

Interestingly enough, IBM has patent theft issues of their own. Over the last few years they have sued Twitter, Priceline, and Amazon over patent infringement. Since they are such strong proponents of "open source" , why would they give a hoot about someone stealing their IP ? Gosh, is that only applicable to others ? The website , www.ip-holdings.com , demonstrates the seriousness of patent protection for companies that spend millions on R&D. You will see billions of dollars of lawsuits involving IBM, Facebook, Google, Microsoft, and others , because IP is an asset on the balance sheet just like a building, an account receivable, or cash. If you pirate IP, it is theft. My concern is that if theft does occur, and judges are complicit, what chance does a peanut company have against the financial giants? If the little inventor has no method to protect his invention, why bother? I will assure each of you, if IBM sees a conflict of interest from a sitting judge, the word " recusal" would be heard loud and clear.

On another subject. It's been pretty wet here in Texas for the last month. Flooding, tornadoes, and storm damage are everywhere. I have been amazed at the generosity of Texans, neighbor helping neighbor, stranger helping stranger. Our state has its share of problems, but Texans understand, overall, that doing the right thing improves our ability to live a quality life. Do yourself a favor today, look around you and help someone in need

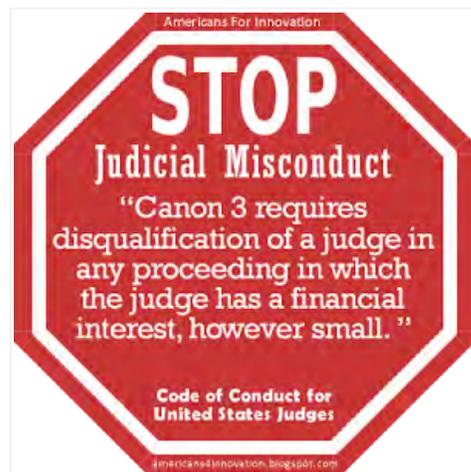

Have a great day, TEX

In 2007, Allan Sloan published an article about the CDOs issued during Paulson last months as CEO House of junk how mortgages went bad. When the financial crisis stuck before the 2008 election Obama pointed to wall street greed as examples of the need for change in America, after taking office spoke Obama spoke of the need to reform the industry but the financial reforms were weak and it was all a lie what can i say it's a wall street government, how can there be reform when the bankers and lawyers that Obama appointed were the cause of the financial crisis, bankers, lawyers and judges who mock the Constitution behind a national security smoke screen. Money, greed and power Zuckerberg is only the wind up toy they put out in front of this parade with Obama Mark Zuckerberg appears to have actually stolen the engineering source code when he stole the idea facebook, Obama NSA have allowed Facebook to get away with jury and court manipulation the NSA knew facebook was stolen and the FBI wanted in on this as well. And it was Obama that appointed all the lawyers and judges.

Read Sheryl Attkisson's Congressional Testimony about the utterly corrupted Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) process and weep at the depths of lawlessness reached by this Obama Administration.

<https://sharylattkisson.com/attkissons-written-testimony-on-federal-agencies-violating-freedom-of-info-act/>

Testimony of Investigative Correspondent Sharyl Attkisson - House Oversight Committee Hearing on Federal Agencies Violating the Freedom of Information Act

The Freedom of Information Act or FOIA should be one of the most powerful tools of the public and the press in a free and open society. Instead, it's largely a pointless, useless shadow of its intended self.

Federal bureaucrats paid tax dollars to act on our behalf routinely break the law with impunity, treating public material as if it's confidential, secret information to be controlled by a chosen few. They withhold it from the public, its rightful owners, while sharing it with select partners such as corporations or other so-called "stakeholders."

In 2013, the Defense Department finally responded to a FOIA request I'd made in 2003. Too late to be of use for the news story I was working on back then—ten years before.

For perspective: my daughter was eight years old when I made the request. When the Pentagon finally replied, she was going off to college.

Last October, I filed a FOIA request when CDC was not forthcoming about the epidemic of Enterovirus EV-D68 possibly linked to the deaths of 14 children and the paralysis of 115 children.

In December, long past the supposed 20-day response time allowed under FOIA, I asked about the status. CDC answered, incredibly, that they were just too busy with the Ebola crisis to process my FOIA. But even now with the Ebola crisis excuse gone, CDC still hasn't provided a single page of Enterovirus information eight months after I asked.

Filing a lawsuit to force the government to comply with FOIA law takes too much time and money, and the agencies still play the delay game. In court, the Justice Department—itself among the worst of FOIA offenders—spends our tax dollars defending violators in their effort to keep public documents secret.

In one lawsuit I filed, the FBI spent months repeatedly claiming that it didn't have information it had previously acknowledged, in writing, that it did have.

I also filed a lawsuit for HealthCare.gov material I sought in 2012. Apparently, the government didn't bother to start looking for documents when I requested them—only now in 2015 are they beginning to do so under court pressure. But documents provided so far are redacted beyond reason.

In 2014, when the State Department finally sent some emails responsive to a request I made in 2012, just about everything was redacted except the address line.

It should come as no surprise that federal agencies often treat Congress with the same disdain and lack of transparency.

They guard and redact information Congress requests, as if Congress is a foreign enemy rather than representatives of the rightful owners of the information.

When pressed to provide material to Congress, federal officials often exert dictatorial control—creating strict terms and rules such as: only allowing review of the material during certain times in special rooms, all under the watchful eye of federal agency minders. This is not transparency.

The FOIA process is improperly politicized. Federal agency press flacks intervene to withhold potentially embarrassing documents. FOIA law does not permit this political intervention, but it's routinely done.

discovery and blocked Leader from preparing its defenses to this new claim. Judge Stark allowed the claims despite Leader's prophetic argument that the action would confuse the jury and prejudice Leader. He also permitted the jury to ignore the Pfaff v. Wells Electronics, Inc. test for on-sale bar, even after instructing the jury to use it. (See that Jury Instruction No. 4.7 here.) He also contradicted his own instruction to Leader to answer Interrogatory No. 9 in the present tense (2009), then permitted the jury to interpret it as a 2002 admission as well. Facebook's entire on-sale bar case is based upon this interrogatory. (Editorial: Hardly sufficient to meet the "heavy burden" of the clear and convincing evidence standard.)

Judge Alan D. Lourie, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Lourie stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook. See analysis of Judge Lourie's T. Rowe Price holdings re. the Facebook IPO.

Judge Lourie also failed to apply his own law-test in Group One v. Hallmark Cards to the evidence. After debunking all of Facebook's evidence on appeal, Judge Lourie created new argument in the secrecy of chambers to support Facebook and prevent the on-sale bar verdict from being overturned—a clear breach of constitutional due process.

Judge Kimberly A. Moore, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, panel judge in Leader Techs v. Facebook, Inc., 678 F.3d 1300 (Fed. Cir. 2012). Judge Moore stood to benefit financially from undisclosed holdings in Facebook.

Federal agencies increasingly employ new tactics to obfuscate and delay.

They say they don't understand a FOIA request.

They claim it's too broad.

They say a search would be unreasonable.

When they do provide a sensitive document, they redact nearly everything using exemptions such as b(5) deliberative process—which has become so ridiculously overused, it's earned the nickname: the "withhold it because you want to" exemption.

Federal agencies claim they lack funding and staff. But they have created their own FOIA backlog by unnecessarily requiring even the simplest requests to go through the onerous FOIA process.

And when a court finds a federal agency violated FOIA law, penalties are almost never imposed. And if the court orders the agency to repay the plaintiff's legal costs, the agency uses your tax dollars... so there's no deterrent to stop the bad behavior. In other words, they're using our money to withhold our own information from us.

In short, FOIA law was intended to facilitate the timely release of public information. Instead, federal officials have perverted it—and use it to obfuscate, obstruct and delay. The system is not broken by accident, it's by design.

In my view, the only thing that could make FOIA work as designed would be meaningful criminal penalties for violators.

When some Leader Technologies shareholders filed FOIA requests at the Patent Office. They were stonewalled in exactly the same ways as Ms. Attkisson describes. By the way, the Patent Office FOIA officer worked for Facebook's lawyer in Leader v. Facebook, but the Inspector General said that conflict was OK! Oh really? Asleep at the wheel or complicit? Anyway, the first response was they had nothing responsive. On appeal, a few documents with highly redacted contents were provided. They also claimed Executive Privilege! Obama? (Hindsight says Chandler/NSA.) On second appeal, a few more documents were magically discovered, with yet more redactions. They then said if you still were unhappy, you could sue them in federal court. Taking a different tack, these people started searching on their own and discovered from the breadcrumbs they were given who these judges and who they had worked for and were invested in: Cartel members IBM, Facebook, Microsoft and Xerox - all prior art patent holders that Facebook kept putting forward and losing on. It took a totally corrupt kangaroo court to get their way. This group of patent judges had issued 169 patents to IBM alone. This IBM mercantile spy-state cartel clearly has the senior federal judiciary in their back pockets.

Flavia and Mavis, my twin assistants, have gone over the edge. Both of these nitwits had crushes on Bruce Jenner for years. As I told you before, Mavis was the state high school shot put champion her senior year. She once threw a refrigerator about 30 ft in the air. Broke the ice feature because the water was still connected. Flavia was a cheerleader.... she held up the entire three layered pyramid by herself during regional championships. These are strong women.

So now , since Bruce is Caitlyn, they are going to become Bill and Phil. They will be competing for his attention. That will be quite entertaining. Another issue is , will they still vote for Hillary simply because she is a woman ? Or will they vote for a man simply because he is a man ? I guess they could vote for Bernie Sanders since he appears to be both. These are exciting times in America. What was, isn't. What could be, won't . What shouldn't be, will. No one tells the truth, and others don't seem to care.

When truth, laws, borders, neutral professors, neutral judges, neutral media, etc. are non existent, we can not survive. When families are destroyed and gender is negotiable at age 50, we have a problem. Had enough yet ?
