EXPERTISE

EXPERIENCE

Matthew Moore is a Global Co-chair of Latham & Watkins' Intellectual Property Litigation Practice and a partner in the Washington, D.C. office. He has extensive trial and appellate experience representing both patentees and defendants, and provides strategic business counseling on intellectual property issues. He has represented numerous Fortune 100 companies. He was also appointed liaison counsel by the court on behalf of 270 defendants in the largest Multi-District Litigation (MDL) patent case in history, and obtained summary judgment of invalidity on 46 asserted claims.

Prior to joining Latham, Mr. Moore was a partner in the Patent Litigation Practice at a global litigation firm. He was previously the manager of product development for software-related technologies at GE Aerospace. While working at GE, Mr. Moore also obtained his MS in Systems Engineering at the University of Pennsylvania and played professional lacrosse for the Philadelphia Wings.

Mr. Moore has been regularly recognized as a leading intellectual property lawyer by The Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners USA in Intellectual Property Litigation in the District of Columbia. He is admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and the United States District Courts for the Eastern District of Texas, the Western District of Wisconsin and the Eastern District of Michigan, and is a member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association.

Mr. Moore's recent speaking engagements include:

- "Enforcement of Patent Judgments," United States-China Intellectual Property Adjudication Conference, Beijing, China, May 2012
- "Automotive Legal and Compliance Share Forum," Detroit Auto Show, January 10, 2012
- "Automotive Legal and Compliance Share Forum," LA Auto Show, November 17, 2011
- Joint Judicial Conference on Japan and U.S. Intellectual Property Rights, Tokyo, Japan, October 26-27, 2011
