

AMERICAN SUFF IS DEPORTED FROM ENGLAND

Lillian Scott Troy Is Sent Home.

HAS BEEN ACTIVE
FOR HOME RULE

Order Is Based On An Accumulation
Of Acts In United Kingdom.

London, April 16.—The deportation from the United Kingdom of Miss Lillian Scott Troy, of San Francisco, an American suffragette is announced. Miss Troy was a friend of Baron Lewis Von Horst, formerly of San Francisco, who was interned by the British government in August 1914. Miss Troy, it is said, worked indefatigably to obtain the release of Baron Von Horst.

She is the only American of any prominence in England to suffer deportation and the case is exciting considerable interest. It is said that before the war, Miss Troy and Baron Von Horst worked for woman suffrage and assisted in flooding American newspaper offices here with propaganda on behalf of home rule of Ireland, coupling it, it is charged, with the suggestion that Ireland and Germany should work together.

Friend of Ann Martin.

Miss Troy was a member of the Woman's Lyceum Club and a close friend of Ann Martin, of Nevada, a prominent American suffragist, who was arrested in London in 1910 for assaulting a policeman.

Miss Troy also managed a moving picture theatre at Croydon, and rented the theatre out for meetings of the police union. From the stage of that theatre, recently, a prominent woman socialist speaker made a speech favorable to the bolsheviks, for which she was imprisoned.

It is understood that influential American friends advised her two years ago to return home, as it seemed certain that her case was then under consideration by the British government.

Accused of Many Acts.

The order of deportation was based, not on any one alleged action, but on an accumulation of acts. In this connection, her outspoken ideas on the Irish situation, her pronounced views on the rights of labor and her frequent clashes with the government over the settlement of Von Horst's business after his internment, are recalled. It is asserted that Miss Troy not only worked constantly for Von Horst's release on the claim that he was an American citizen, but made every effort to further his interests in the liquidation by the government of his varied undertakings. She also assisted in the management of the baron's companies.

No reasons were given Miss Troy, it is said, when detectives called on her a few days ago and asked her to accompany them to Liverpool. On arriving at Liverpool, she was placed immediately on a liner bound for the United States. The steamer should arrive on the other side in a few days.

The Croydon branch of the associated society of engineers has adopted a resolution calling for a one day strike of allied workers in that district as a protest against Miss Troy's deportation.

Editor. (Apr. 17, 1919). American Suff[rage]ette Is Deported From England, Lillian Scott Troy Is Sent Home, Has Been Active For Home Rule, Order Is Based On An Accumulation Of Acts In United Kingdom. Pine Bluff Daily Graphic (Pine Bluff, Arkansas). Reproduced for educational purposes only. Fair Use relied upon.

Editor. (Apr. 17, 1919). American Suff[ragette] Is Deported From England, Lillian Scott Troy Is Sent Home, Has Been Active For Home Rule, Order Is Based On An Accumulation Of Acts In United Kingdom. Pine Bluff Daily Graphic (Pine Bluff, Arkansas). Reproduced for educational purposes only. Fair Use relied upon. Source: <https://www.newspapers.com/image/288832164/>

American Suff[ragette] Is Deported From England

Lillian Scott Troy Is Sent Home.

HAS BEEN ACTIVE FOR HOME RULE

Order Is Based On An Accumulation Of Acts In United Kingdom

London, April 16 [1919].—The deportation from the UNITED Kingdom of Miss Lillian Scott Troy, of San Francisco, an American suffragette is announced. Miss Troy was a friend of Baron Lewis Von Horst, formerly of San Francisco, who was interned by the British government in August 1914. Miss Troy, it is said, worked indefatigably to obtain the release of Baron Von Horst.

She is the only American of any prominence in England to suffer deportation and the case is exciting considerable interest. It is said that before the war, Miss Troy and Baron Von Horst worked for woman suffrage and assisted in flooding American newspaper offices here with propaganda on behalf of home rule of Ireland, coupling it, it is charged, with the suggestion that Ireland and Germany should work together.

Friend of Ann Martin.

Miss Troy was a member of the Woman's Lyceum Club and a close friend of Ann Martin, of Nevada, a prominent American suffragist, who was arrested in London in 1910 for assaulting a policeman.

Miss Troy also managed a moving picture theatre at Croydon, and rented the theatre out for meetings of the police union. From the stage of that theatre, recently, a prominent woman socialist speaker made a speech favorable to the bolsheviki,* for which she was imprisoned.

It is understood that influential American friends advised her two years ago to return home, as it seemed certain that her case was then under consideration by the British government.

Editor. (Apr. 17, 1919). American Suff[rage]ette Is Deported From England, Lillian Scott Troy Is Sent Home, Has Been Active For Home Rule, Order Is Based On An Accumulation Of Acts In United Kingdom. Pine Bluff Daily Graphic (Pine Bluff, Arkansas). Reproduced for educational purposes only. Fair Use relied upon. Source: <https://www.newspapers.com/image/288832164/>

Accused of Many Acts.

The order of deportation was based, not on any one alleged action, but on an accumulation of acts. In this connection, her outspoken ideas on the Irish situation, her pronounced views on the rights of labor and her frequent clashes with the government over the settlement of Von Horst's [sic Horst's] business after his internment, are recalled. It is asserted that Miss Troy not only worked constantly for Von Horst's released on the claim that he was an American citizen, but made every effort to further his interests in the liquidation by the government of his varied undertakings. She also assisted in the management of the baron's companies.

No reasons were given Miss Troy, it is said, when detectives called on her a few days ago and asked her to accompany them to Liverpool. On arriving in Liverpool, she was placed immediately on a liner bound for the United States. The steamer should arrive on the other side in a few days.

The Croydon branch of the associated society of engineers has adopted a resolution calling for a one day strike of allied workers in that district as a protest against Miss Troy's deportation.

* Bolshevism is a political philosophy created by the British Pilgrims Society and inculcated into Vladimir Lenin starting in 1902 at the hosting of British MP Philip Whitwell Wilson—co-founder of the Pilgrims Society, co-organizer of the First Imperial Press Conference, 1909, YMCA-China promoter (Mao Tse-Tung sponsor), editor, The New York Times, United Nations co-founder.

