Description
This database is a collection of middle school, junior high, high school, and college yearbooks from across the United States. While yearbooks may not provide information about the vital events that are usually associated with genealogical research, they do provide other information about individuals' lives. This information helps place people in historical context as well as provides detail that helps turn individuals, sometimes only known by names and dates, into actual people. Learn more.

Billows of smoke issued forth from the science room. "Eureka! Eureka! We did it." Yep, they did it, all right. Two desks, three flasks, a graduated cylinder, and twenty-two feet of glass tubing. As the smoke cleared, the sooty forms of the Science Club members were seen frantically gasping for fresh air. It was another successful experiment. This group of aspiring young scientists were once again furthering their scientific prowess and curiosity. Within a short time, due to the unending research performed by this undaunted group, you too will be able to partake of the fruit of their success. Yes, you can be the first one on your block to purchase a do-it-yourself atom smasher kit.

ADVANCED MATH

Overheard in Advanced Math class: "If you're wearing a three-cornered hat, you're wearing a triangle. If you're not wearing a three-cornered hat, you're not wearing a triangle. Therefore, a triangle doesn't necessarily have three corners. That's logical. It naturally follows that a man without a head should wear a two-cornered hat. The converse is also true. If you're wearing a two-cornered hat, you shouldn't have a head. That's logical, too. Thus, the British won the Revolutionary War."
TEACHER’S EVERY WHIM . . .”

PROJECTION CREW

The boys service organizations are vital to the efficient functioning of school activities. The Stage Crew is responsible for the lighting, sound, and production of assemblies, shows, and special affairs. The Safety Unit insures orderly, efficient, and safe evacuation during fire drills. Rangers is the elite service organization of the school. Their guidelines being “Scholarship, Service, Character,” Rangers serve in such capacities as operating the duplicating machine, serving as ushers at official school functions, and fulfilling special services requested by the office and faculty. The audio-visual facilities of the school which enhance the effectiveness of our education are operated by the Projection Crew. The Key Club’s “raison d’etre” is to serve the school and community and, in so doing, to instill in its members a sense of awareness and responsibility. Their activities are evinced by their slogan, “Inspire Individual Initiative.”

These organizations are comprised of enthusiastic and responsible boys whose sole aim is service.

EDITORIAL STAFF

An essential facet of school life is the free expression of ideas and thoughts, the dissemination of opinion, and the reporting of school events, activities, and experiences. The SULLIVAN SENTINEL, our school newspaper, satisfies this aspect of our educational experience. Under the direction of its sponsor, Miss Fannie Kovitz, and fine editorial and reporting staffs, the SENTINEL is truly an effective, refreshing, frank expression of our views and activities.
