General Speaks To ROTC Class

WESTMINSTER — Brigadier General James E. Freeze of the U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM) at Fort George G. Meade, will address the 16 ROTC cadets to be commissioned at Western Maryland College on Sunday at 10:30 a.m. Gen. Freeze's career has spanned 38 years of service from Ethiopia to Viet Nam. His present position as deputy commander of the INSCOM includes his responsibility for most of INSCOM's intelligence collection activities and operation of most of INSCOM's field elements throughout the world.

A native of Marengo, Iowa, Gen. Freeze received his baccalaureate degree through the University of Maryland's off-duty education program in 1963, and a master's in business administration in 1967 from Syracuse University Army Civil Schools Program. The commissioning ceremony takes place in the Decker Auditorium of Lewis Hall. The public is invited.

Identical statues of the "Madonna of the Trail" have been erected in 12 states stretching from Maryland to California. The statues are a monument to the courage and determination of America's pioneer mothers.

By EDITH SHRIVER
447-2651
The Emmitsburg Historical Society will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Library Conference Room, Community Building, S. Seton Avenue.

The Senior Citizens meeting was held May 15 at 1 p.m. in the Senior Center. The meeting opened with prayer given by Carrie Hahn and group singing accompanied by Mrs. Ada Myers at the piano. President Frances Rosensteel presided at the business meeting. Following the reports of the secretary and treasurer, Helen Brown, chairman of the spring bazaar, reported a net profit of $1,447.21, and thanked everyone who helped in any way. This was the best spring.