Queen awards CBE to John Jay Iselin for contributions to British television in the United States. Iselin is president of the Guglielmo Marconi International Fellowship Foundation at Columbia and served for 20 years on the board of the American Friends of Cambridge University where he was a Marshall scholar.