Leonardo European Corporate Learning Award 2012

Dr. Wilfried Stoll and Dr. h. c. Kurt Stoll, the founders of Festo Didactic, received the Leonardo European Corporate Learning Award for their holistic approach to company learning.

The two brothers, with their vision of Europe transforming into a knowledge-based economy, have been actively supporting and designing learning concepts for decades – within their companies Festo and Festo Didactic and with educational projects in countries all over the world. The award for their achievements in the category “Company Transformation” bases on the overall realisation of their visions.

The Leonardo European Corporate Learning Award will also be given to:
- Prof. Dr. Hans-Jörg Bullinger, President of the Fraunhofer-Gesellschaft
  Category: „Thought Leadership“
- Sugata Mitra, Professor for Educational Technology
  Category: “Crossing Borders”

More information
Festo and Leonardo