Among the many honors and awards, Dr. Bondar has been recognized with the NASA Spaceflight Medal, inducted into the Canadian Medical Hall of Fame and into the International Women’s Forum Hall of Fame for her pioneering research in space medicine. Dr. Bondar is a Companion of the Order of Canada and has been appointed to the Order of Ontario and as a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada. She has received 28 honorary doctorates from Canadian and American universities. Dr. Bondar received her own star on Canada’s Walk of Fame in 2011.

Chairman: Roger Hooper
Roger founded Hoopers Africa Trust in March 2007 following many visits to Kenya. He is a photographer who is passionate about wildlife. He has photographed many extraordinary aspects of our planet and has travelled to all seven continents.
Roger uses his photography as a way of informing others of the frailty and beauty of the world around us, highlighting the need to preserve our wildest environments, and the plight of our most endangered species. Roger is also a staunch supporter and contributor to WWF-UK www.rogerhooper.co.uk

Trustee: Nick Giles
Nick is HAT’s lawyer as well as being a trustee. He has been responsible for ensuring all the requirements of charity law are satisfied. Nick carried out the legal work to set up HAT and has been involved ever since. This has included visiting Kenya to meet the students every other year since 2007.
Nick has been a friend of Roger Hooper for over 40 years, so when Roger decided to set up HAT, Nick was delighted to become involved.
Nick lives with his wife Ina in Putney, South West London. Away from work, Nick’s interest are theatre, tennis, football and socialising with family and friends.

Trustee: Helen Couldrey
Helen has a degree in Education from Sussex University and taught at schools in London and Toronto. She became a commissioning editor with McGraw-Hill International with the remit to introduce a new Mathematics programme for Canadian schools. In 1982 Helen set up and ran a publishing and stationery company in London. This company was acquired by GMC Publications Limited in 2012. Helen now runs Esmonde Publishing, the stationery division of GMC.
Helen was the Director of Hoopers Gallery from 2003-2011 and is a Past Master and on the Court of the Worshipful Company of Stationers’ and Newspaper Makers in the City of London. Helen is also Chair of the Stationers’ Education Committee
Trustee: Elizabeth Barthes-Wilson

In December 2015 Dr Elizabeth Barthes-Wilson joined our board of Trustees.

Elizabeth is a General Practitioner in London, with experience of working in Africa, most recently at an Ebola Treatment Centre in Sierra Leone.

Elizabeth’s medical expertise greatly benefits Hoopers Africa Trust and the health and well-being of our HAT students.

Away from work, Elizabeth’s interests include travel and photography.

Overview

Sally joined the organisation in 2000 and became a partner in the Business Support & Restructuring Team in May 2002. She is experienced in contentious matters arising from corporate and individual insolvency situations. Sally mainly advises office holders and institutional lenders. She also handles administrations (new style and old), liquidations and bankruptcies.
Lady Sally began her legal career specialising in insolvency and corporate recovery. She became a partner in the Restructuring Group of an international law firm in 2002, which in 2005 merged to form DLA Piper, with offices in the Americas, EMEA and Asia Pacific. As a partner, Sally focused on multi-jurisdictional asset recovery litigation. She retired from law in 2006 to focus on raising a family.

Since 2009, Sally has been a Trustee of Hoopers Africa Trust, a charity which aims to transform the lives of disadvantaged and vulnerable girls in Kenya through education. To date, the trust has funded more than 120 girls through secondary education and 11 through further education.
