The scene of Chandler's crime against humanity:

Fig. 2—Pictured (back right) of the conference table is intellectual property law professor James P. Chandler, III, on Jun. 08, 2000, at a confidential product design conference conducted by Michael McKibben, Founder, Inventor, CEO of Leader Technologies in Columbus, Ohio (red shirt, back to camera). On the storyboards were key components of Leader's social networking designs, still copied by Google, Facebook, Instagram, GAB, Truth Social, IBM, HP, Microsoft, AT&T, Washington Post, New York Times, Daily Mail, Daily Telegraph, Reuters Thomson, BBC, HSBC, Bank of England, JPMorgan, Rothschild & Sons, Vanguard, Blackrock, Fidelity, T. Rowe Price, Blackstone, Barclays, Goldman Sachs, Federal Reserve, ICE, Salesforce.com, and the rest of the Babylonian British Pilgrims Society's fascist corporate network worldwide—they are not Jewish (they hide behind Judaism and "antisemitism"). Here's their 4,000-year secret: they are pagan Babylonian Silk Road banker-merchants, descended from Radhanites, via Ashkenaz (Turkey), Khazaria and Sogdia. Twelve (12) days after this Leader product design meeting, Chandler gave Sir Geoffrey S. Pattie, chairman of the British Intellectual Property Institute, an award in Washington, D.C., along with their fellow Pilgrims Society member Sir Caspar W. Weinberger, former U.S. Defense Secretary. British knights now run Facebook: Sir Nicholas Clegg, Lord Richard Allen. See Crimeline. See also Pilgrims Society of United States Officers (1973-1995). Note that Sir Geoffrey also founded SERCO, was the keeper of the Queen's "Golden Share" controls over all strategic British industries, and ran Marconi Wireless that became British Aerospace. British SERCO now controls the U.S. Patent Office and essentially runs the U.S. Navy through over $8 billion in U.S. contracts, along with another $8 billion in contracts by SERCO's sister company British QinetiQ. This is the secret company Chandler kept while he stole Leader Technologies' invention of social networking and sold America's sovereignty to the British Crown.

James Phillip Chandler, II [sic. III]

Obituary

James Phillip Chandler II [sic. III] was born August 15, 1938 to Isaac Chandler & Lilly Mae Norling Chandler in Bakersfield, California. He was the esteemed patriarch of the Chandler family and beloved husband of Elizabeth Thompson Chandler (Departed). James P. Chandler II was a cherished father of seven children, Elizabeth “Lynne” Chandler (Departed), Dr. James Phillip Chandler III, Isaac Chandler, Dennis Augustine Chandler (Departed), Ruth Rebekah Chandler, Aaron Daniel Pushkin Chandler and David Martin Thompson Chandler. He is also an adored grandfather of eleven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Phillip, as he was known by family and friends, grew up in Bakersfield, California. During his formative years, he was a studious young man who enjoyed reading books, farming, and playing chess. He carried books with him everywhere he went, earning him the nickname of “Booky” from his peers. Phillip was also a fun-loving yo-yo champion who would often entertain family and friends with his talents. Phillip was a quite charming yet serious man who generously supported his immediate and extended family in any way he could.

A gifted academic and seasoned business leader, James Phillip Chandler II, commonly referred to as “Professor Chandler”, received a graduate fellowship to Harvard University in 1970 and in 1971 became a fellow in the Academy of Engineering of the National Academy of Sciences. In 1972,

James P. Chandler, III, the thief of the social networking invention of Leader Technologies, dead at 83 (August 15, 1938 ~ July 16, 2022). His cause of death is not known. Arguably, Chandler’s theft, as Leader’s patent attorney, has done more than any single event in history to empower the Babylonian British Pilgrims Society in their quest to attempt to subdue all of humanity into their usury tyranny. (See post below.) Good riddance to a very evil man, in our opinion.

Chandler was one of America’s most heinous spies. Bill & Hillary learned from Chandler. He collaborated with Sir Geoffrey E. Pattie in the British Pilgrims Society, U.S. and UK Patent Offices, Cambridge Analytica, Marconi, SERCO, QinetiQ, AstraZeneca, Rothschild & Sons, RCA, GEC, BAE, MI-6, MI-5, GCHQ, IBM, C.I.A., NSA, FBI, military-industrial corporations, judiciary, academia, Crown agents, Senior Executive Service (SES), Bill Clinton, daddy and baby Bush, Barack Obama, Robert Mueller, and the infamous Andrew W. Marshall—the demon who weaponized stolen technologies for the U.S. and UK governments for almost 50 years inside DARPA, the Highland Group and British Crown Agents.

Chandler also lied to everyone about his ancestry. He said he was part Cherokee Indian. He was not. From his obituary we first learn that he was 25% Choctaw Indian blood. His grandfather, farmer James Reuben Chandler (d. Dec. 12, 1920), married the full-blooded Choctaw Indian woman “Nettie West.” His grandfather was granted citizenship in the Choctaw Nation on Jul. 25, 1903. He poisoned himself 17 years later and died on Nov. 12, 1925 at age 60. Why did Chandler lie? Embarrassed he was not a British blue-blood with whom he conspired mightily for the Pilgrims Society in the spy and technology weaponization business? He did use “Chandler III” for a long time. Perhaps to emulate his FBI buddy “Robert S. Mueller III?” Tellingly, no one else in his lineage was a “James Phillip Chandler.” So Chandler’s use of “III” was woke window dressing, it appears. (In recent years he appears to have changed it to “Sr.” in court records, even though there was no “Jr.” Then, his family just used “II” in the obituary—a moniker he never used. This obfuscation was evidently intended to confuse ancestry searches. As usual, obituaries are one of the few times in a person’s life when their families use enough truth to unravel such misdirection. In this case, his mother’s and father’s full names.)

Chandler was also silent about his father, Rev. Isaac Reuben Chandler, a descendant of “common laborers” (1940 Census) and farmers in Louisiana, Kentucky and Oklahoma. “Elder” Chandler, as he was known by his parishioners, was a life-long pastor, evangelist and church planter in the Church of God (Anderson) (see photo) Wesleyan holiness movement. This church was mostly white with a few exceptions. “Bro. Isaac” was beloved by his two congregations: Bakersfield CA (33 yrs.), Los Angeles (25 yrs.). The just deceased James P. Chandler was one of 15 siblings, nine brothers and six sisters. No doubt his father Bro. Isaac’s acceptance and leadership among “Christian white folk” did not fit son James’ black prejudice schtick that he milked at every opportunity among woke blacks in Boston, NY, Chicago, Baltimore, and D.C.

For the record, following is the issue of Isaac Reuben Chandler (1912-1971): Rev. Isaac Reuben Chandler, father, born Apr. 20, 1912, Fallis, OK; Lillie Mae Chandler (née Norling), mother, born 1915, OK; (Locations on Sep. 01, 1971); Dr. James P. Chandler, son, Boston, MA; Arnold Lewis Chandler, son, Davis, CA; Timothy Anthony Chandler, son, Davis, CA; Will Nathan Chandler, Bakersfield, CA; Naham Demitri Chandler, Bakersfield, CA; Dennis F. Chandler, Oklahoma City, OK; Juanita Florine Phillips (née Chandler), Los Angeles, CA; Edith Ann Sellers (née Chandler), Los Angeles, CA; Mildred Helen Thomas (née Chandler), Bakersfield, CA; Rebekah Queen Ella Benjamin (née Chandler), Bakersfield, CA; Alice Penelope Chandler, Bakersfield, CA; Clarissa Lillie Mae Chandler, Bakersfield, CA; Ella Aires (née Chandler), Oklahoma City, OK; Phebe M. Chandler, Oklahoma City, OK

This contributor personally observed Chandler nastily berate a hapless hotel night clerk in Boston for racism because Chandler interpreted a silent glance by the clerk at Chandler’s white guests as racist. In another affair, Chandler tried to stir up racial trouble among black leaders across the country by exploiting the self-inflicted troubles of black Ohio State champion footballer Maurice Clarett, even though Chandler knew nothing about football. In fact, Chandler attended his first ever football game as `Leader Technologies Michael McKibben’s guest to watch Mike’s pre-med son Max play for Harvard—Zuckerberg had already dropped out. Clarett’s young, storied history was notorious for petulance (for which he has now apologized as youthful indiscretion). Chandler and his son Aaron also filed two lawsuits against the D.C. police for racism (both cases were thrown out after Chandler failed to defend his own accusations). See Case No. 08-1158-HHK-(D.D.C. 2008); see also Case No. 10-cv-

00903-ABJ \(D.D.C. 2010\). (Note: The first case has been removed from the D.C. district court's own summary of opinions).

Now that the liar-in-chief James P. Chandler, III, Sr., or whatever, is dead, we encourage those with knowlege of his lies to enlighten the world on the depths of his treachery. Notably, we invite those with knowledge of Chandler's illegal activities in the "National Intellectual Property Law Institute \(NIPLI\)" to come forward, most especially his former staff, members and speakers. Chandler was a convenor of the highly illegal Highlands Group. The world demands to hear about the depths of this treachery. See Whistleblower Affidavit. Each person and company listed in these links is complicit in Chandler's crimes against humanity in their silence.

OBITUARIES

Elder Isaac Chandler, the youngest son of James and Ellen Chandler, was born April 20, 1912 in Fallis, Oklahoma, and departed this life on Sunday, July 11, 1971 in Bakersfield, California at the age of 59 years, 2 months and 22 days.

At the tender age of 6, exercising child-like faith, he sought the Lord and was wonderfully saved at Fallis, Oklahoma. He was saved under the ministry of Father George W. Winn, a pioneer minister of the Church of God. In his youth, he humbly and faithfully took the counsel of Father Winn, his pastor, and assisted him in his work and later succeeded him as pastor. As a child, Brother Chandler also faithfully and dutifully assisted his widowed mother in praying for the sick and ministering to the spiritual needs of the people of their community.

On February 18, 1933, he was united in holy matrimony to Miss Lillie Mae Norling in Bristow, Oklahoma. To this union 15 children were born, 9 sons, and 6 daughters. Four sons preceded him in death.

In 1937, he felt the call of God leading him to Bakersfield, California to oversee a small but growing congregation. He faithfully and dutifully served as pastor of the Bakersfield congregation for 33 years, and pastored the Los Angeles congregation for 25 years. As an evangelist, he established congregations in various states.

Many people were blessed by his preaching, teaching and counseling. His ministry began at the age of 16, although he was 20 when he publicly declared that he felt God had called him to preach. So for 43 years, this holy man of God carried the gospel of Jesus Christ to many people across the nation and throughout the State of California. Not only did he declare the Word of God from the pulpit, but he also answered the calls of the sick and the troubled and those in need of counsel and prayer. No night was too cold, nor distance too far, nor any problems too small for Bro. Chandler to answer the call.

Upon him, God had bestowed the special gift of healing. Thus, through his prayers, the blind received their sight, the lame walked, the dead were raised to life, and many other miracles were wrought in answer to the prayer of faith. God also endowed Bro. Chandler with the gifts of wisdom and of discernment.

His life here among us has been a blessing as much because of his example as because of his teachings. Even through his long illness, he set an example of courageous faith in God. So we can say with confidence that he fought a good fight, that he kept the faith and that he has gone to Glory to dwell with God and all of the faithful. Only eternity will reveal the good this man of God accomplished by his faithful life and devotion to God and service in the church, in the community and wherever he went.

He leaves a faithful and devoted wife, Mrs. Lillie Mae Chandler; five sons, Dr. James P. Chandler of Boston, Mass., Arnold Lewis Chandler, Timothy Anthony Chandler of Davis, Calif., Will Nathan Chandler, and N a h a m Demitri Chandler of Bakersfield, Calif.; six daughters, Mrs. Juanita Florine Phillips, Mrs. Edith Ann Sellers of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Mildred Helen Thomas, Mrs. Rebekah Queen Ella Benjamin, Alice Penelope Chandler, and Clarissa Lillie Mae Chandler, all of Bakersfield, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Ella Aires, and Miss Phebe M. Chandler, both of Oklahoma City, Okla.; one brother, Dennis F. Chandler, of Oklahoma City, Okla.; 33 grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, other relatives, saints and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Bro. Lewis Williams, assisted by Bro. E. J. Trotter, Bro. Francis Doolittle and Bro. Calvin Hobbs. Interment was in Union Cemetery, Bakersfield, to await the general resurrection.

Emma (Jackson) Jackson was born in Slaughter, Louisiana on Dec. 10, 1882, the daughter of Scott C. and Emma Arnett Jackson. Emma departed this life July 2, 1971, at the age of 88 years, 6 months and 22 days.

Emma Jackson married Harry S. Jackson on Sept. 26, 1901. To this union were born five children: Levi, Veva, Harry Jr., Ione and Lula. They were married 69 years and 10 months.

She leaves besides her husband and five children, 23 grandchildren, 38 great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends. She is also survived by one brother, John Jackson, and two sisters, Elizabeth Brashear and Ivy Williamson.

The funeral service was conducted by Bro. C. C. Carver, assisted by Bro. Herbert Probst. Graveside service was conducted by Bro. Ira D. Stover. Interment was at the Oak Grove Church of God Cemetery, Lorange, La.

Catherine Elizabeth Simpson, born September 6, 1896, departed this life July 9, 1971 at the age of 74 years, 10 months and 3 days.

She was married to Richard Simpson on Nov. 16, 1916 who preceded her in death on Sept. 15, 1953.

She leaves one son, Thomas T. Simpson; two sisters, Mrs. Josephine Reffett, of Tuscon Ariz., and Mrs. Marie McIntosh of Hammond, La.; three grand children, Gilbert, Paul, and Angela Simpson. She also leaves a devoted niece, Mrs. Harvey Husser, and a host of relatives and friends.

Sister Simpson was ordained a minister of the Church of God on Sept. 11, 1938, having been converted and having accepted the truth a few years earlier. She had great faith, and was used of God to bring many souls to Him. Her last testimony was that she had peace with God, and expressed a desire to go on and be with the Lord.

Funeral services were conducted by Bro. Max Williamson. Scripture texts used were Job 14:14; 19:25; 1 Cor. 15:19, 20; John 14:19 and Matt. 22:32.

—M. F. Williamson

Charles Hensel Olson was born May 18, 1906 at Springwater, Iowa and passed from this life to be with the Lord on June 13, 1971 at the age of 65 years and 26 days at Jefferson, Oregon.

In 1927 he was united in marriage to Margaret English at Vancouver, Washington and to this union four children were born.

Bro. Olson's personal testimony was that God so abundantly blessed him with health and temporal blessings that he came to realize how greatly he needed God's eternal blessings in his life. In 1950 he yielded his heart to our great Savior and in 1951 he was led of the Lord to meet and worship with the children of God at Jefferson, Oregon. As Bro. Olson became established in the truth, he felt the call to the ministry, especially that of a personal worker in the highways and hedges, endeavoring to help others understand this glorious gospel and encouraging many isolated saints.

He is survived by his wife, Sis. Margaret Olson, two sons and two daughters: Charles H. Olson Jr., Hillsboro, Oregon; Bill J. Olson, Milwaukie, Oregon; Elnora Hamilton, Eugene, Oregon; Margaret Stover, Tulsa, Oklahoma; thirteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren.
