An open letter to Russian President Vladimir Putin

Dear Mr. President,

I write to ask you to exercise restraint with regard to the devilish threat to Russia and the Ukraine that you face at the hands of godless warmongers in the British-American military-industrial complex.

You and I may have met when you were a KGB colonel in Leningrad in 1981 after Aleksandra Pakhmutova and Nikolai Dobronravov published our music on the 1980 Moscow Summer Olympics film and Melodiya issued an EP. I was then European director of an American Gospel music group named Living Sound. I had just visited our Estonian translator in Tallinn, who had introduced us to Pakhmutova. He had just been released from Patarei prison for his “anti-Soviet” crime of organizing Christian music concerts. You or your employees body searched me at the Leningrad airport before my departure, then let me go, thankfully.

Fifteen years later my wife and I, formerly evangelical Protestants, made the decision to be chrismated into the Orthodox Christian Church. In 1995, I was a guest of His Holiness Patriarch Alexei II in Moscow regarding the new Orthodox Church in America Representation Church of St. Catherine the Great Martyr. We participated in a blessed procession through the streets of Moscow commemorating The Great Stand on the Ugra River that founded Moscow, and prayed for the martyrs of Lubyanka.

My wife’s father was a 69th Infantry Division rifleman at the Soviet-American Link-Up at the Elbe River near Torgau, Germany on April 25, 1945. Fortunately, cooler heads prevailed and our war-hardened troops stood down that day from a conflict that General Eisenhower feared.

I understand from those closer to you that you are now a praying Russian Orthodox Christian. I pray for you to have the Wisdom from on High to help the world navigate the threat that the Spirit-less NATO British-American merchant-banker Pilgrims Society centered in TheCityofLondon is perpetrating upon the world, and especially on Russia and the Ukraine.

We know that the Pilgrims Society has been trying to orchestrate the subjugation of Russia for over 100 years—at least since Viscount Alfred Milner, the creator of the modern concentration camp in Boer War South Africa, hosted the Russian Duma in London on June 22, 1909. See official Parliamentary photo attached.

Warmongers like Victoria Nuland and a host of British-American propagandists, barons, lords, knights, dukes, field marshals, air marshals, admirals, generals, spies, and politicians are evidently taunting Russia to use nuclear weapons. Thinking people know that your restraint is strength and wisdom, not weakness.

Love wins and is the ultimate toughness of character.

Godspeed, Mr. President.
