- ④ Dr Theodor Lenders, interned at Ahmednagar Camp, India: his repatriation allowed, but not via Suez; to be sent to Durban. Sailed on 26 September 1916.
- ④ Communication addressed to interned Germans at Lofthouse Park, Wakefield: C Koettgen, Ernst G von Baerenprung, H Titel and Dr Martin Ficker to receive it through United States Embassy. Von Baerensprung repatriated in August 1916.
- ④ Albert Beckert, Walter Göldner, Benno Gundelfinger and Max Bauer: applications for release and repatriation. Beckert repatriated in October 1916.
- ④ Baron Louis von Horst: release not allowed. Letter on his behalf from Miss Lillian Scott Troy referred to the Home Office.
- ④ Internment of German subjects at Alexandria, Egypt.
- ④ Repatriation of enemy aliens from self-governing Dominions overseas. With printed paper 'Procedure with regard to repatriation of enemy persons'.
- ④ Richard Heckmann, interned at the German Hospital, Dalston, London, on behalf of the French Government: asks to be transferred to Switzerland to be operated on by a specialist; his request refused. His son-in-law William Bradford Atwaters makes plea for him. French Government object to his release because of his activities on behalf of enemy interests in Algeria.

- ➊ Repatriation of German doctors.
- ➋ Internment of crew of the steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie at Falmouth, Cornwall. List of 61 names (in docket no.158267). Their repatriation refused.
- ➌ Internment of German civilians over 55 years of age: Ferdinand Elsass and Friedrich Wichard repatriated in June 1916; Benno Gundelfinger and Louis Weinreich to be repatriated; Franz Ludewig does not wish to be repatriated.
- ➍ Hugo Dettinger, interned at Trial Bay, New South Wales, Australia: cannot be repatriated because fit for military service.
- ➎ Walter Ostermann, interned at Douglas, Isle of Man: not eligible for repatriation, as fit for military service, and an ex-officer in the German Army..
- ➏ Elimar Muller, interned at Knockaloe Camp, Isle of Man: has been medically examined but is not eligible to be repatriated as an invalid civilian.
- ➐ Friedrich Schmitting, detained in Britain for naval reasons.

- ⌚ Willi Haas: was repatriated via Gravesend and Flushing (Vlissingen), Netherlands, in July 1916.
- ⌚ Otto Georg Brix, interned at Knockaloe Camp: allegedly an invalid, but examination shows his health to be good.. Miss Else Möllenhoff, a British subject who does not wish to proceed to Germany.
- ⌚ Paul A F Ludewig: his repatriation desirable.
- ⌚ Max Kypke: not allowed a permit to proceed to the West Indies.
- ⌚ Rudolf von Wülfing: since British Government refuse repatriation of this partially deaf man, German Government will refuse similar exchanges. Another examination confirms he is ineligible for repatriation.
- ⌚ Philipp Dieterich: released from internment in Union of South Africa and paroled at his own request to Springfontein.
- ⌚ Erich Possehl: to be repatriated from New Zealand at expense of German Government.
- ⌚ Dr Richard Nolte, interned at Lofthouse Park, Wakefield: is receiving pay and treatment as an officer, from 7 July 1916.
